

MScN Computing Orientation

University Information Technology – Client Solutions and Services

Setting up your account

- <http://mms.yorku.ca>
- You will need the following accounts using Manage My Services
 - Passport York (PPY)
 - Electronic Mail
 - Acadlabs

WebMail

http:// mymail.yorku.ca

For other email application setups go to

[http://www.yorku.ca/computing/students/email/
email_apps.html](http://www.yorku.ca/computing/students/email/email_apps.html)

Outgoing (SMTP) mail server – ISP dependant

Locations of onsite labs-

HNES

William Small Centre Computing Commons

017 ACE

Free printing for grad students

($300 @ 10 cents/pg)

Free printing printers in WSC and Libraries on campus. Oak Queue.

- Closest location Scott Library

Accessing your accounts –Acadlabs

- Virtual Labs

Connect and use software on-line. All you need is an ACADLABS account to connect to the 'WebAcadlabs'. This service is offered by University Information Technology \(UIT\)

WebAcadlabs – access to software on the lab computers from home

<http://www.yorku.ca/computng/students/labs/webacadlabs/index.html>

Click on the login button

Virtual Labs

- Labfiles is another way to get files you have saved on your acadlabs home directory from anywhere.
 - <https://labfiles.yorku.ca/NetStorage>

Personalized student portal!

- <http://my.yorku.ca>

My.Yorku.ca is a one-stop shop where you can access your York email, keep track of dates and times with a personal calendar, access course information, review your library account, receive alerts and announcements, events and news from various sources at York, and much more. Log in to my.yorku.ca using your regular Passport York ID.

- <http://computing.yorku.ca/>
- If you have a question you can ask a SuperGeek online
- Wireless on campus can be accessed via <http://airYork.yorku.ca> and your PPY login

Got a Computing
Question?

ASK the Super Geek!